

Abstract of the Article
"Regional Economic Safety: Essence and Methods of Foreign Economic Activity Provision"
by V. Proskura

Consideration of major strategic socio-economic development direction of the Zakarpatsky region and foreign economic activity peculiarities has allowed identifying priorities in their economic safety provision. Among the dominant activities the following ones have been emphasized:

creation of the partner relationship management process model applied to realizing economic relations within the framework of joint projects formation of the regional production base readiness, by means of foreign direct investment (FDI) as well, for the inclusion into TNK conducting control over the activity of operating and newly-created corporations identification of the controlling and coordinating authority representing regional interests.