

Abstract of the Article
“Modern Trends of Small Business Banking Micro Crediting Development in Ukraine”
By M.B. Shmorgai, N.V.Kriven

The problem of low financial support of domestic small business and the necessity to determine the ways and conditions for further micro crediting development in Ukraine make the study of modern banking micro crediting trends topical and up- to- date. The actuality is also determined by understanding of small business micro crediting essential role in economic growth of the country in general and it's banking sector in particular.

Based on the assessment and analysis of the conditions that can provide further small business micro crediting development in Ukraine the authors of the article suggest some recommendations for banks to enhance their micro crediting programs.

Key words: small business, bank, micro crediting, micro credit, international program, trends of development, financial-economic crisis.

The article contains 3 tables and 5 references.